

WNTC Elects New Board Members

Charles Winter of Clarkson has been named the new manager of radio station WNTC for the coming year. He will succeed Selig Brooks. Johanna Anguish, a junior in Potsdam College has been named assistant manager.

Other officers elected were: secretary, Laura Lumley; business manager, Norm Kicherer; director of sales, Dave Ritt; director of operations, Dick Ashcroft; director of programming, Ron Willman; director of announcers, Arnold Gosewich; director of record librarians, Lydia Urban; director of control room operators, Dick Hill; engineering director, Carl Benedict; personnel director, Gerry Brill; publicity director, Harvey

Glatt; and news director, John Hillman.

Two new shows on the weekly program are 8:15-8:30, News show on Mondays, and following from 8:30 to 9:30, the WNTC Top Ten.

The News broadcast will cover news from the Lewis house, Potsdam and Clarkson Colleges, and town news. The top ten Capitol releases will be the feature of the top ten show.